

Jamille P. Datu, RMT, is a Registered Medical Technologist and an experienced Embryologist for 11 years. She obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Centro Escolar University and passed the Medical Technology board examination in 2010.

She received mentorship and training from the Embryologists of Kato Ladies Clinic in Shinjuku, Japan and Filipino Pioneers of Kato Repro Biotech Center. Her hands-on training includes Ovum Pick-Ups & Intracytoplasmic Sperm Injection (ICSI). She is currently performing all IVF laboratory procedures including Trophectoderm Biopsy and Ovarian Tissue Cryopreservation.

She is a certified Drug Test Analyst and a member of Asia Pacific Initiative on Reproduction (ASPIRE), Philippine Society for Fertility Preservation (PSFP), Philippines Society for Reproductive Medicine (PSRM) and BioRisk Association of the Philippines 2015, Inc. (BRAP).